

The Axholme Academy

Teacher of Food Technology (MPS) Maternity Cover

Required for January 2020 through to Autumn 2020

The role has the potential to continue in the academic year 2020/21 on a part-time basis

The Axholme Academy wishes to appoint an enthusiastic, creative and innovative professional to start with us as a Teacher of Food Technology on a maternity cover basis from January 2020 to Autumn 2020. We are offering an opportunity to work in a supportive Academy environment where excellent learning and teaching is at the heart of what we do.

In July 2017 Ofsted confirmed that The Axholme Academy continues to provide a good education for students and inspectors told us that we have “successfully created a culture in which your pupils want to succeed.” Would you like to teach young people who want to learn and aspire to achieve the best possible outcomes? If so then you could be the Food technology teacher that we are looking for! You may be an NQT or a more experienced teacher; what is important to us is that you are passionate about Food Technology and are looking to develop a love of Food Technology in the young people that you teach regardless of their ability.

In either case you will be joining a talented and supportive team led by a highly committed and forward thinking head of department.

The Axholme Academy is increasingly becoming the first choice school for parents in the local area, not just those in our traditional catchment area of the market town of Crowle and surrounding villages but also those traditionally catered for by different local authorities. This has led to us increasing the number of students on roll year on year which in turn has enabled us to increase the number of staff that we employ thereby further improving the quality of our provision. As such the Academy is now oversubscribed in the majority of year groups.

The Academy is a founder member of The Northern Lincolnshire Education Consortium and the lead school for its School Direct teacher training programmes. This highlights the importance that we place in developing the best possible teachers for our students and our commitment to this continues throughout our teachers' careers. We can not only provide the successful candidate with high quality opportunities for personalised professional development but also the opportunity to establish high impact partnerships across the region.

To apply for this role please visit the vacancies section on our website www.theaxholmeacademy.com to download an application form and send it, with a covering letter of no more than 2 sides, to Sophie Leggott, Business Manager, at sleggott@theaxholmeacademy.com. Visits to the academy are encouraged, please email Sophie Leggott to make arrangements.

The Axholme Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. Any offer of employment to this post will be subject to receipt of a satisfactory Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service.
